DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

P.C. 1406.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

THURSDAY, the 13th day of July, 1933.

PRESENT:

THE DEPUTY OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by Order in Council of the 17th October, 1918, P.C. 2544, Fractional Legal Subdivisions 3 and 4, lying east of Fraser River, in Section 23, Township 11, Range 26, west of the 6th meridian, in the Province of British Columbia, were set apart as an Indian reserve, designated as Boothroyd Indian Reserve No. 11:

And whereas the designation of the said Indian reserve was changed from Boothroyd Indian Reserve No. 11 to Boothroyd Indian Reserve No. 12 by Order in Council of the 5th August, 1921, P.C. 2759:

And whereas the Minister of the Interior reports that the right-of-way of the Canadian Northern Pacific Railway crosses the said Indian reserve and should have been reserved out of the lands set aside for this Indian reserve:

Therefore, the Deputy of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, on the recommendation of the Minister of the Interior, is pleased to order as follows:—

1. Order in Council of the 17th October, 1918 (P.C. 2544), is hereby amended by striking out the description of the Indian reserve designated therein Boothroyd Indian Reserve No. 11, and substituting therefor the description hereinafter set out.

2. The said Indian reserve as described hereunder is hereby transferred to the Department of Indian Affairs.

Description of Boothroyd Indian Reserve No. 12.

Being all that portion of the South Half of the South-west Quarter of Section 23 in Township 11, Range 26, west of the 6th meridian, in the Province of British Columbia, lying to the east of the left bank of Fraser River, as shown upon a map or plan of survey of the North-east Quarter of the said township approved and confirmed at Ottawa on the 10th day of May, A.D. 1921, by Thomas Shanks, for the Surveyor-General of Dominion Lands, and of record in the Department of the Interior, containing by admeasurement forty-three and seventy-hundredths acres, more or less; saving and excepting thereout the land taken for the right-of-way of the Canadian Northern Pacific Railway as shown coloured pink upon a plan showing the right-of-way required for the said railway signed by G. M. Christie, Dominion land surveyor and British Columbia land surveyor, on the 29th day of February, A.D. 1924, and of record in the Department of the Interior under No. 38543, a duplicate whereof is on record in the Land Registry Office in the City of Kamloops under No. A 528, containing by admeasurement twelve and fifty-two hundredths acres, more or less.

(Signed) E. J. LEMAIRE,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

To the Honourable
The Minister of the Interior. 4039-au3

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(1.) To unite fraternally, for mutual benefit, protection, improvement, and association, loyal male citizens of sound body and mind, either born or educated in Canada, not less than the age of 18 years or more than 35 years of age, of good moral character and of reasonable desire and ambition to improve themselves and willingness to help others:

(2.) To obtain work suitable for the various members, and especially to get those members at present on relief, off relief, and to direct their energies to a "Back-to-the-land Movement," and to broaden their interest in such other pursuits as to improve their standards of efficiency and productivity:

(3.) To obtain the support of the public-minded citizens and the Provincial Government of this Province to accomplish a "Back-to-the-land Movement," and to induce the Provincial Government to set aside suitable areas of land on which the members could be placed (such land to be furnished by the Government to the members of this Society):

(4.) To obtain governmental support in furnishing equipment for the working of said land in the way of axes, shovels, grub-tractors, etc.; such utensils to be supplied by the Department of Public Works from surplus stores; such blocks of suitable land to be provided in British Columbia by the Provincial Government on terms to be agreed upon between the Government and accredited representatives of "The Young Canada Club":

(5.) To do any road-work required by the Provincial Government and to erect any log buildings; to foster the idea of live-stock raising:

(6.) To purchase, lease, hold, sell, develop, mortgage, convey, or otherwise acquire or dispose of real and personal property necessary or proper for the carrying-out of the purposes of this Society as the Board of Directors may in their discretion deem wise:

(7.) To unite together for the purposes of acquainting the Federal, Provincial, and Municipal Governments and those engaged in the employment of labour that they should discriminate between alien labour and those who are eligible for this Society, and to promote the idea of fair play on the labour market, but not to effect such purposes by any form of demonstration, parades, or any radical methods:

(8.) To assist in the education of the young men of Canada along the lines of integrity, loyalty, co-operation, and good-fellowship:

(9.) To invest and reinvest surplus funds of the Society in such securities or properties as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine:

(10.) To assist in any other matters pertaining to the welfare and advancement of the members and for the attainment of the highest order of citizenship; to secure work for the unemployed members of this Society:

(11.) To make rules regarding the routine and personnel of those working on the various subdivisions on the "Back-to-the-land Movement":

(12.) To encourage and promote the establishment of branches of "The Young Canada Club" throughout Canada; to enable the formation of distinct branches under the direction of the executive of this Society, and to form some co-operative scheme in each individual branch. 4060-au10

(b.) To acquire, either by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, any improved or unimproved lands in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over and in connection with land, and to lease, sell, exchange, mortgage, or otherwise deal with or encumber any such lands or any interest therein, and to build, contract for, or construct any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company, and to use, manage, lease, sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, exchange, or otherwise any personal property, chattels, chattels real, fixtures, or other effects required in connection with the Company's business or undertaking or otherwise, and to sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same:

(d.) To invest, lend, or deal with the money of the Company not immediately required for the Company's business in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(e.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(f.) To borrow or raise money for any purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, make, accept, execute, endorse, discount, issue, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, and chattel mortgages, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of lading, or other obligations:

(g.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets to any person, firm, or company and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (Provincial, local, municipal, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(i.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or to issue and allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(j.) To enter into any partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(k.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(l.) To establish or promote any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any part of the assets and liabilities of the Company, or the carrying-on of any business or operations which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities of, and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligations of any such company:

(m.) Subject to the "Insurance Act," to guarantee the obligations of any companies or persons carrying on any business or operations which shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and in particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing words, to guarantee the payment of dividends on shares or the payment of interest on debentures of any such company, and to guarantee the payment of moneys secured by or payable under or in respect of contracts, mortgages, charges, obligations, and securities of any such person or company, and the due performance and discharge of any and all contracts by any such person or company:

(n.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(o.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price or consideration for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(p.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(q.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital, or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities in the Company or in the conduct of its business, or in respect of the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(s.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the Provinces of Canada, or in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place:

(t.) To establish depots in any part of Canada or in any other country for the carrying-on of the said business:

(u.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in conjunction with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(v.) To aid in the establishment and support of associations or institutions calculated to benefit persons employed by the Company or having dealings with the Company; to provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company or formerly in the employment of the Company, and the widows and children of such persons and others dependent on them, by granting moneys or pensions, providing schools, reading-rooms, places of recreation, or subscribing to sick or benefit clubs or societies; to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects or for any exhibition, and generally for any purpose which may seem likely, whether directly or indirectly, to promote the development of the business of the Company, or to prevent its contraction, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(w.) To do all such other things as are or the Company may think are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or which may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or to facilitate the realization of, or to render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.
